After discussion the members resolved to object to this application because there needs to be a change of use to the home application because it is a residential home currently. The PC feels that as this is for business use the CQC or King's Lynn Borough Council social services needs to be consulted so that anybody outside of the family, that uses the annex is fully protected and adequately catered for, the PC is not able to support the application until those reassurances are have been met and further information provided.
